2004-2006 Filmed and directed the documentary “Where?s Molly” based on his life story of finding his sister after a nearly 50-year separation.

“When I found my sister, Molly, 47 years after she was sent away, many cameras recorded the event. Molly loved the attention and we realized that it was the first time since childhood that anyone had taken pictures of her.

“Molly and I reestablished a loving relationship and share our story with the hope that other families will be inspired to ask about and find a missing member.”
